VERSE 1

I fell because you saw me
Or you played the part so well
I opened up the windows
And I let you in to dwell
I started shrinking daily
To fit inside your scheme
I was chasing intimacy
You were chasing a machine

PRE-CHORUS

I was the anchor
Holding up the line
Bare hands raw and bleeding
While you were marking time
I gave you my sacred
A vessel you didn't earn
You just checked the mirrors
Waiting for the turn

CHORUS

Is your remorse a hollow echo
Just a part of the charade
I was just a getaway
Until you found another way
There's a ghost in the passenger seat
Wondering why I gave so much
For a man who's incomplete

VERSE 2

I stopped begging for the rations
I stopped reaching for my due
I was keeping us in motion
Just to stay in front of you

But I saw the jagged openings
The gaps you couldn't hide
You didn't want the woman
You just wanted the ride

BRIDGE

I heard the echo
Of every single lie
While your shark eyes looked
Straight into mine
I saw you through the window
Where the shades didn't fit
Watching the smoke rise
While you sit in it

THE RECKONING (Verse 3)

I want to know the hidden truth
The things you'll never say
Why did she get the stay
While you erased me from your yesterday

OUTRO:

Cutting the Power
I know the truth, I see it
There's no way to free it
I'm cutting the power
Leaving you in the low
Just a shadow of a man I used to know

No more yes or no
I'm the one who's staged to go
I'm an empty tank for you
I've paid the debt and more than due
I'm done with the Getaway lie
