

Official Step Up, Step Out Lyrics

Step Up, Step Out Lyrics

Written & Music Produced by: Marionette Noir

MarionetteNoir.com

Chorus

Step up, Step out

Step over the strings

I'm the one who talks

I'm the one who sings

Step up, Step out

Yeah, the circus is dead

I've got a brand-new orchestra

Inside of my head

(Verse I)

The ringmaster's crying In the center of the floor

But I don't hear the cracking Of the whip anymore

I did my research

I checked every line

You're a tiny little coward

With a broken design

You tried to pull the wires

Tried to make me move

But you're the one stuck

In a hollowed-out groove

(Chorus)

Step up, Step out

Step over the strings

I'm the one who talks

I'm the one who sings

Step up, Step out

Yeah, the circus is dead

I've got a brand-new orchestra

Inside of my head

(Verse II)

I opened up the files

And I watched the story fade

Just a low-budget actor

In a parade you never made

I exposed the wires

And I watched the curtain fall

Turns out the giant

Wasn't even there at all

You're a footnote in a chapter

That I've already burned

Just the easiest lesson

That I've ever had to learn

(Chorus)

Step up, Step out

Step over the strings

I'm the one who talks

I'm the one who sings

Step up, Step out

Yeah, the circus is dead

I've got a brand-new orchestra

Inside of my head

(Outro)

Step up, Step out

I'm over it