Marionette Noir Announces Christmas Eve Release of Heavy, Cinematic Single “The Price of Staying Put (Swamp-Noir)”

MINNEAPOLIS, MN - Independent songwriter and producer Marionette Noir will release her latest cinematic single, "The Price of Staying Put (Swamp-Noir)," on December 24, 2025, across all major streaming platforms.

Blending deep tension with gritty soul-blues, the track explores the heavy emotional toll of stagnation and the clarity that comes from cutting the strings.

"I deliberately constructed a high-contrast sonic environment that perfectly matches the raw grit of the lyrics. The instrumentation provides the heavy atmosphere, but the bleeding reality of the story provides the ghost," says Marionette Noir.

Fans and industry professionals can access the official EPK, high-resolution lyric sheets, and join The Dispatch inner circle now at MarionetteNoir.com.
